Mr. John H. Gullom, Editor of the Garland, Tex., News, has written a letter of congratulations to the Manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup and we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results.—For sale by F. J. Wattron.
